

Greetings Historic Property Owners,

I am Mayor Ron Feinsod, and I am writing to all the historic property owners in Venice. I want to encourage you to consider listing your property on the City of Venice Local Register of Historic Places.

As you know, our beautiful city is filled with all sorts of historic properties, from circa 1926 homes and midcentury modern houses, to culturally significant commercial buildings. Each historic property adds to the overall charm of our city. By listing your property on the Local Register of Historic Places others will better understand and appreciate our exceptional city.

Having your property listed on the Local Register of Historic Places is an honor. This designation will show that your historic property is an integral part of Venice history. If a property owner wishes a plaque can be posted stating that your property is on the Local Register of Historic Places. It also will mean that measures are in place to help ensure the integrity and longevity of your property.

The City of Venice Historic Preservation Board has prepared an information packet about the process to nominate your property to be listed on the Local Register of Historic Places. This packet should help answer your questions and show you step-by-step what it takes to be listed on the Local Register of Historic Places. Here is the link to the packet: <https://www.venicegov.com/government/historical-resources>.

I hope you will consider listing your property on the City of Venice Local Register of Historic Places. The first step in the process is to contact the City's Historical Resources Manager, Harry Klinkhamer at 941-486-2490 or email him at hklinkhamer@venicefl.gov. Mr. Klinkhamer can help you get started.

Thank you for your interest in historic preservation in Venice!

Sincerely,

Ron Feinsod

Mayor of City of Venice
