100 years of your City on the Gulf City of Venice Centennial Celebration Plan

100 years of history

As a visionary masterpiece of famed city planner John Nolen, the City of Venice was founded in 1926 with concepts highlighting the Gulf of Mexico, railway travel, parks and open spaces, roadways, and city spaces. To commemorate 100 Years of Your City on the Gulf, the Centennial Celebration signifies a century of the City's advancements in tourism, economic development, and cultural spheres such as performing arts, fine arts, and the legacy of the circus. Over the mid-20th century, Venice has evolved through various identities, yet the "City on the Gulf" remains its most iconic. The Centennial Celebration promises to honor generations of memories and a century of rich history.
