

Office of the Mayor

Proclamation

Whereas, the open exchange of public discourse is essential to the democratic system of government; and

Whereas, as a cornerstone of democracy, Americans have observed certain rules of behavior known as civility; and

Whereas, civility, derived from the Latin words "civitas" meaning city and "civis" meaning citizen, is behavior worthy of citizens living in a community or in common with others; and

Whereas, displays of anger, rudeness, ridicule, impatience, and a lack of respect and personal attacks detract from the open exchange of ideas, prevent fair discussion of the issues, and can discourage individuals from participation in government; and

Whereas, civility can assist in reaching consensus on diverse issues and allow for mutually respectful ongoing relations; and

Whereas, civility can uplift our daily life and make it more pleasant to live in an organized society; and

Whereas, the City, County and Local Government Law Section of The Florida Bar urges the adoption of a pledge of civility by all citizens in the State of Florida.

Now therefore, I, John W. Holic, Mayor of the City of Venice on behalf of the Venice City Council do hereby proclaim the month of May 2014 as:

Civility Month

And calls upon all citizens to exercise civility toward each other.

In Witness Whereof, I have hereunto set my hand and caused the Seal of the City of Venice to be affixed this 13th day of May, 2014.

John W. Holic, Mayor
