Why do you desire to serve on this Board?

As a full-time Realtor of 20 years here in Venice, Florida I am immersed, informed and involved in the day-to-day business of property, trends, conditions and developments of our fine City and surrounding areas. Over the decades I've worked successfully with other business people, retirees, families, long-time locals and new-comers, listening attentively to their needs, wants, requirements and opinions. I believe that my experience and perspective would bring value to the composition of the Planning Commission. I also understand and respect the importance of a framework pertaining to the use and development of property for the present and future benefit of our City and its citizens.
