

Office of the Mayor

Proclamation

Whereas, Sexual Assault Awareness Month is intended to draw attention to the fact that sexual violence is widespread and has public health implications for every community member of the City of Venice; and

Whereas, rape, sexual assault, and sexual harassment impact our community as seen by statistics indicating that one in five women will have experienced sexual assault by the time they complete college; and

Whereas, we must work together to educate our community about what can be done to prevent sexual assault and how to support survivors; and

Whereas, with leadership, dedication, and encouragement, there is compelling evidence that we can be successful in reducing sexual violence in the city through prevention education, increased awareness, and holding perpetrators who commit acts of violence responsible for their actions; and

Whereas, the City of Venice strongly supports the efforts of national, state, and local partners, and of every citizen to actively engage in public and private efforts to work together to better address sexual violence; and

Whereas, Safe Place and Rape Crisis Center (SPARCC) provides free services to victims of domestic and sexual violence and their children in Venice, and seeks to stop the crime of sexual violence through public awareness and education; and

Whereas, SPARCC encourages every citizen to actively engage in public and private efforts, including conversations about what sexual violence is, how to prevent it, how to help survivors connect with services and how every segment of our society can work together to better address sexual violence.

Now, Therefore, I, John W. Holic, Mayor of the City of Venice on behalf of the Venice City Council do hereby proclaim the month of April 2014 as:

National Sexual Assault Awareness Month

And urge all citizens to observe this month by becoming aware of the tragedy of sexual assault, supporting those who are working toward its end and participating in community efforts.

In Witness Whereof, I have hereunto set my hand and caused the Seal of the City of Venice to be affixed this 8th day of April, 2014.

John W. Holic, Mayor
