

Office of the Mayor

Proclamation

WHEREAS, good records and information management practices are essential to the effective and efficient operation of government; and

WHEREAS, retention and disposal schedule compliance promotes government transparency and responsible management of taxpayer-funded resources; and

WHEREAS, effective records and information management helps minimize risk by ensuring information is readily available through established policies, procedures, and practices; and

WHEREAS, this month, we encourage City of Venice Departments to review their records and information management practices, and demonstrate compliance and adherence to records management laws.

NOW, THEREFORE, I, Nick Pachota, Mayor of the City of Venice, on behalf of Venice City Council, do hereby proclaim April 2026 as in the City of Venice and encourage residents and staff to appreciate the significance and importance of maintaining and organizing records and data in regulatory compliance.

In Witness Whereof, I have hereunto set my hand and caused the Seal of the City of Venice to be affixed this 24th day of March, 2026.

Nick Pachota, Mayor
