

Narrative and Comprehensive Plan Consistency Report

This change is intended to enhance public safety and prevent property owners from shielding prohibited uses from view on vacant property. Currently, a vacant property could be fenced with at least a 3' solid fence along the street frontage for residential areas or 6' in a commercial zoning district, which does not permit full visibility for Code Enforcement.

No intents or strategies in the Comprehensive Plan were found to relate to this change.