I have painted multi-wall murals for the US Government's Veteran's Services Division at their center in Richmond Va., and Brevard County's (Florida) Juvenile and Health Department, as well as in assorted restaurants, churches, clubs and private domiciles. I have also executed numerous portraits in paint and photography around the country, air brushed an assortment of trucks, cars, motorcycles and snowmobiles up and down the east coast, designed several bumper stickers for Ephemera in Washington State and done promotional and design work for groups like the Feminist Majority and NAACP.

I served as an editorial cartoonist and text editorialist for the American Independent Press, and the Alternative Press of Western New York from 1997 until 2003. I was then an Editor and staff writer for Wadi Magazine in Richmond, Virginia for four years following that. I am the author of several educational picture books for adults and children you may view at my site here: <http://www.redbubble.com/people/taonzen>
And have co-authored/illustrated several others as well.
