

SERVICE AWARDS

AL CONRAD

Alan Conrad started with the city of Venice on November 11, 1993 as a Municipal Service Worker. He became a Maintenance Technician on October 1, 1999 and was promoted to Senior Maintenance Technician on October 1, 2001. Al has experience in all phases of maintenance, including plumbing and electric, and has become quite handy with City Hall's H.V.A.C. In April of 2002, Al was again promoted to Electrical Maintenance Technician.

When not consumed with the maintenance of all our city buildings, Al also takes care of the traffic signals and street lights. Al works well with all city departments and is quick to resolve any issues given responsibility for.

Al finds ways to get the job done no matter how difficult, in the safest and most cost-effective way possible. Al has been praised by various departments within the city for his professionalism and expertise. Al goes the extra mile and is very much appreciated!
