Kellys:

As you are aware, our client has inquired about his virtual participation and attendance in the above-referenced appeal hearing, scheduled for September 9th at 10:30 A.M. We, his legal representatives, will be attending and participating in person. Our client's virtual participation would enable him to provide evidence and testimony, receive direct and cross examination, and respond to questions from Council members.

In support of our client's inquiry, he has provided us with the following written request:

To whom it may concern;

Regarding the appeal hearing on September 9th at 10:30 am. I am requesting that I attend the meeting virtually due to a personal matter involving our participation in hospice care for both my mother and my wife's father in Pennsylvania. Their health situations are both serious and unpredictable. Thus I cannot make a firm commitment to attend in person.

*Thanks in advance,
Wally Kitonis, Owner*

Please let us know if you have any questions or need any further information in order to make your determination on his request. We look forward to hearing from you at your earliest convenience.

*Kind regards,
Annie Boone*
