Updated Workshop Schedule Now Available

Topics for this year's workshops have been announced! We're proud to bring you a full program with topics as diverse as Florida's cities. With breakout sessions on everything from city revenues to social media to health care reform and public records laws, there's something for every city official -- from seasoned veterans to those just beginning their careers in public service. Click here to view the updated agenda.

You won't want to miss this year's general sessions featuring the annual presentation of the E. Drew Harris Award and special addresses by U.S. Senator Bill Nelson, Florida Governor Rick Scott and National League of Cities President Marie Lopez Rogers. Keynote speakers include renowned authors Erik Qualman, MBA Professor at the Hult International Business School, and Franklin Deese, mayor of the Town of Marshville, North Carolina.
