Code Enforcement Board

Why are you interested in serving on a board or commission?

I wish to continue my service on this board as part of my active involvement in city life. The board has lost or is losing most of its experienced members and my departure would result in the last of the experienced members except one other commissioner.

Why are you interested in serving on a board or commission?

I am interested in serving on the Code Enforcement Board for the City of Venice because I am interested in the continued progress and betterment of the entire community in which I grew up. As a current business owner, and having been raised in Venice, I have a unique insight that will greatly help to further the Board's goals.
