

Jerry Manchester

Jerry began his career with the City of Venice in 2000 as a Utilities Service Worker in Water Distribution and Collection Division. The following year, he transferred to the Airport as a Municipal Service Worker. In 2002, Jerry was promoted to Municipal Service Worker II and remains a valuable member of the Airport team. Jerry's coworkers agree that he prides himself in fulfilling tenants work orders with great care and has been important to the maintenance of Venice Municipal Airport.

Jerry is originally from Massachusetts, lives here with his wife Flo, and is a very proud grandfather of two grandchildren.

Thank you, Jerry, for your dedicated service.
