

SECTION 2. - ZONING

2.4.3. Residential Uses

For all residential uses, family shall be defined as one or more persons living together as a single housekeeping unit and occupying a single dwelling unit. There shall be a rebuttable presumption no family exists if there are more than six persons and none are related by law, blood, adoption, marriage, domestic partnership, or are not under judicial order for foster care living together in the same dwelling unit. Such presumption may be rebutted by the Director.

B. Single-Family Attached Dwelling.

1. Characteristics. A dwelling unit that is physically attached to one or more units, with each unit on its own lot. Parking, open space, recreation features, and the like may or may not be part of a larger tract under common ownership by the landowners of the individual lots.
2. Accessory Uses. Accessory uses commonly found are similar to those in single-family detached or two-family dwellings, including recreational facilities, parking of autos for the occupants, pools, piers and docks, home occupations, and family day care homes (6 or fewer children). Noncommercial plant nurseries, greenhouses, private garages, tool houses and garden sheds, garden work centers, children's play areas and play equipment, private barbecue pits, private swimming pools, private docks and the like are also permitted as accessory uses.
3. Examples. Examples include paired villas and townhouses on individual lots.
4. Exclusions. Villas and townhouses not on individual lots are considered under Two Family Dwelling/ Paired Villas or Multifamily Dwelling.
5. Use Standards.
 - a. In RSF-1, -2, and -3 zoning districts, single-family attached dwellings must meet the required lot size in the applicable zoning district for each unit.
 - b. In RSF-4 and RMF-1, -2, and -3 zoning districts, individual lots for single-family attached dwellings must meet a minimum lot width of thirty (30) feet and a maximum lot coverage of sixty-five (65) percent.
 - c. All accessory uses shall be clearly incidental to permitted single-family use.
 - d. Pools and accessory uses and structures with a roof impervious to weather shall not be located in required front yards.
 - e. Home occupations may have up to two employees or independent contractors, not including remote employees, who reside outside the home in which the business is located. Parking, exterior modifications, conducting of retail transactions, and mitigation of potential nuisances must be conducted in accordance with F.S. § 559.955. A home occupation shall be subject to all applicable City occupational license and other business taxes.
