

VENICE LOCAL REGISTER FORUM

May 8, from 5:30 to 7:30 pm
at William H. Jervey, Jr. Venice Public Library

Come learn about historic preservation in Venice.

The City of Venice is hosting a Local Register Forum to provide information and answer questions about listing your property in the Local Register of Historic Resources. This forum will describe the potential benefits and the owner's obligations in joining the register.

As part of our city's ongoing efforts to preserve the structures that make Venice historic and charming, we would like to invite the community out for this exciting opportunity. It will be your chance to learn more about historic preservation and discuss your unique properties with local professionals, historic associations, and city staff.

The forum will be held from 5:30 to 7:30 PM on May 8 at the William H. Jervey, Jr. Venice Public Library, located at 300 Nokomis Avenue South. The following groups will be present:

- City of Venice Historical Resources Division
- City of Venice Planning and Zoning Department
- City of Venice Historic and Architectural Preservation Board
- Joy Builders
- Sarasota Alliance for Historic Preservation
- Venice Heritage

The event will begin with a brief presentation from each of the groups, with most of the time devoted to individual questions and smaller discussions.

Venice Heritage is graciously providing refreshments for this event.

Details about our open forum can be found on the City's Web site: www.venicegov.com/ or by visiting the City of Venice Facebook page: www.facebook.com/CityofVeniceFlorida/
