Why are you interested in serving on a board or commission?

I believe that serving on a board is one way of contributing to the vitality and integrity of the City of Venice. This service is an honor and a privilege. As a member of the Code Enforcement Board, I am proud to exercise my responsibilities in an impartial manner taking into consideration only the evidence that is presented to us.

Resume of Education and Experience:

I have a BA degree in Political Science from the University of Florida, and a JD degree from Emory University. I have over thirty years past experience in legal and management/executive positions with the U.S. Equal Employment Commission and the U.S. Department of Housing and Development. I am a past member of the California Bar and a Board member emeritus of the Georgia State Bar.

Presently I am not a member of any organizations.

BIOGRAPHY OF JUDITH A. KEELER

Judith Keeler, better known as Judy, is a retired attorney and manager who now is pursuing a second career as an author. She has completed and is marketing one novel and has published several short stories.

Judy is a graduate of the University of Florida, with a Bachelor of Arts in Political Science, and of Emory University's School of Law. She is a member emeritus of the State Bar of Georgia and an inactive member of the State Bar of California. She has been a member of the Senior Executive Service for the federal government and a regional manager of a HUD program in the Pacific Northwest.

Judy was raised in Clearwater, Florida, and her father resided in Osprey before his death. She moved back to Florida from Seattle, Washington. She has resided in Venice since 2008. She is a past Board member of Venice Heritage, Inc.; Venice Area Beautification, Inc.; the Venice chapter of American Association of University Women; the Venice Art Center; the Loveland Center; and the South County Advisory Council of All Faiths Food Bank.

Judy is the proud owner of a 1952 single family home on the island of Venice. Her hobbies are reading, interior design, and gardening.
