Presentation by Venice Heritage, Inc. for Hibiscus Painting Fundraiser.

Ms. Tiffany Fernandez, Venice Heritage, Inc., provided a presentation of a proposed fundraiser for Venice Heritage. She stated their main priority currently is the Lord-Higel House and requested the Public Art Advisory Board to approve their proposal of having local artists paint Hibiscus flowers on buildings. The Hibiscus flower has been the City flower since 1966. The project was inspired by a similar project that has been successful in Dunedin, Florida, where oranges were painted on buildings as a tribute to the citrus industry.

Venice Heritage, Inc., would match local artists with property owners interested in having the Hibiscus flowers painted on their buildings. Ms. Fernandez noted that artist fees would be about $200 for a 12 x 12 painting with the possibility of a 60/40 split. Informal inquiries with about a dozen property owners have determined there is community interest.

Discussion occurred about how to promote and recognize participation, including on the Venice Heritage, Inc., website. Board members expressed their concern that artists could paint Hibiscus flowers on buildings without participating in the project. It was also noted that property owners in deed-restricted communities would need to obtain permission from the HOA before participating. The board also discussed the idea of painting on tiles that would be adhered to the building to achieve the objective but also allowing for consistency of appearance and durability of the artwork.

A motion was made by Ms. Moscatelli, seconded by Ms. Floryjanski, that the proposal for the hibiscus painting project be recommended for City Council approval. The motion carried by the following vote: 4-1, with Ms. Valencic voting no.
