

On page green number 74 Conservation Open Space Defined Strategy OS 1.2.1 the following language be included.

“That the level of service for Functional and Conservation Open Space can be referenced at page 87 under Strategy OS 1.11.1 Mixed Use Residential District Requirements (1)”

The essential reading of the Mixed Use Residential declare that “A minimum of 50% of the gross land area shall be provided as Open Space. Open spaces shall not be less than a minimum 10% conservation or a minimum 10 percent functional varying based on site conditions”

On Page 79 Mining Consideration Strategy OS 1.7.1 Mining Oversight

That a definition clearing describing the meaning to the word Extreme well stimulation (fracking), injections wells and waste water sludge/pits be put to the appendix providing meaning to other terms within the plan

Hydraulic fracturing (also fracking, extreme well stimulation, injection wells, and waste water sludge/pits in which rock is fractured by a pressurized liquid. The process involves the high pressure injection of “fracking fluid (rivalry water, continuing sand or other potential pollutants suspended with the aid of thickening agents into a welfare to create cracks in the deep rock formations through with natural gas, petroleum and brine will flow more freely