Venezia Park

The City of Venice Parks System Master Plan (Final Draft) strives to maintain the City's balance of culture and nature, ensuring that the parks system continues to provide for both the recreational and social needs and desires of (ALL) City residents.

UNIVERSALLY ACCESSIBLE PLAYGROUND

A playground that is accessible and enjoyable for all children regardless of abilities or challenges. This can be achieved by removing the barriers that disabled children face on playground equipment and activities.

NATIONAL CENTER ON ACCESSIBILITY

University of Indiana Bloomington

The public playground is one of the most important settings for child development.

“When we design for, and apply the Principles of Universal Design, we design for inclusive play where every child, regardless of ability or disability, is welcomed and benefits physically, developmentally, emotionally and socially from the environment.”

ENEZIA PARK UNIVERSALLY ACCESSIBLE PLAYGROUND PROJECT

A review of the City Comprehensive Plan Adopted in 2017 reveals specific elements that guide the management of growth and the quality of life in the City of Venice.

The City of Venice Parks System Master Plan (final draft) evaluates each city park and identifies needed improvements. It is this inventory and evaluation that shows very limited amenities at Venezia Park

The addition of a Universally Inclusive, all-abilities play area coupled with additional outdoor amenities would address the needs for Venezia park identified in the draft master plan and be in keeping with the original John Nolen plan of natural balance for this neighborhood.

The Parks System Master Plan (Final Draft) identifies Venezia Park as one of the lowest rated City parks
