Collecting COVID-19 Project

The Julia Cousins Laning and Dale Laning Archives & Research Center is interested in collecting stories and certain objects related to how the COVID-19 pandemic affected your business.

Did your business create customized masks with your logo on it? Consider donating one to the historical collection.

We are also collecting your stories about COVID-19's impact on you and your business. Please consider going to the Venice, Florida StoryCorps Archive at <https://bit.ly/3fitBcC>.

Other items of interest include: digital photographs, any makeshift signs announcing closures or alterations to business practices, temporary take out menus, etc.

If you would like to donate or have questions about what we are accepting, please contact Jon Watson, Curator and Collections Manager, at 941-716-7255 or archives@venicegov.com.
